Covington safety fair set for Saturday

Post staff report

From the wagging tail of a police dog to the SWAT team and water rescue units, Northern Kentucky's finest will turn out Saturday to show the community the tricks of staying safe -- and saving lives.

The Covington Neighborhood Safety Fair, planned for 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday in Goebel Park, will bring together more than 12 safety and rescue agencies for a day of information and fun.

Sponsored by the Covington Neighborhoods initiative of the Covington Parks and Recreation Department, the event will feature the horse patrol, SWAT team, crime lab and K9 unit from Covington Police; Boone and Campbell County Water Rescue units; the Kenton County Sheriff's Department and a Covington Fire Department "safety house."

The Northern Kentucky Independent Health District, Kenton County Animal Care and Control, Shriners Burn Institute, St. Elizabeth Hospital and the Kentucky State Police will also participate.

Many activities and demonstrations are planned.

For more information, call Covington Neighborhoods at the Covington Parks and Recreation Department, (859) 292-2151.
